

Resource Profile

Wahlstation im Referendariat

German/English Speaking interns based in Cape Town South Africa

Company Profile

Cognia Law is a next generation legal service outsourcing provider. We specialise in partnering with international law firms and multinational corporations to harness the legal expertise South Africa has to offer.

Cognia Law provides Legal resourcing services and Legal managed services supported by a diverse and international team of qualified lawyers in South Africa that supports a global client base on a range of increasingly sophisticated services, ranging from contract management to M&A due diligence, litigation and financial markets documentation services.

Role Description

Cognia Law offers a 3-month internship as Wahlstation in Cape Town. The candidate's responsibilities will generally relate to data collection, data management, document review, drafting and negotiation.

Candidate Requirements

- Languages: German and English – Fluent (speaking and writing)
- Previous experience in an English-speaking environment will be an added benefit
- Excellent interpersonal oral and written/ verbal communication skills
- Able to work both independently and as an integral part of a team
- Strong analytical skills and attention to detail
- Excellent negotiation and drafting skills
- A good grasp of Microsoft Office applications
- Be comfortable with technological applications, plus a knowledge of legal review platforms will be beneficial

Please send your application and CV to: recruitment@cognialaw.com who will be in touch together with one of our team Tobias Keller.

More information: www.cognialaw.com